MEMORANDUM

To: Mr. Christopher S. Barclay, Member, Policy Committee
Ms. Shirley Brandman, Member, Policy Committee
Mr. Alan Xie, Member, Policy Committee

From: Patricia B. O'Neill, Chair, Policy Committee

Subject: Census data for Board of Education Member Districts

At the last meeting of the Policy Committee on February 7, 2011, I asked staff to look at the new 2010 Census data to see if the population in each of the Board of Education districts had changed significantly since the 2000 Census. As we discussed, it is important to know this data to determine whether we believe it triggers any requirement to change the boundaries of any of the Board of Education districts through the redistricting process this summer.

Staff has produced the attached spreadsheet showing the 2010 Census numbers compared to the 2000 Census numbers. As you can see, there has been some growth and shift in the population, but the proportions have not changed dramatically.

We will need to discuss this information further and share it with our legislative delegation as they prepare for redistricting this summer to determine what, if any, changes need to be made. I am sharing this information with Senator Richard Madaleno, Delegate Brian Feldman, and Delegate Eric Luedtke, as well.
